MISSION STATEMENT

The creative talents of the Cornish Colony were instrumental in shaping the aesthetic taste of the nation at the turn of the past century. Today, many still consider that aesthetic to represent a golden age in American art and culture. Their legacy is an integral part of the fabric of our national heritage. We intend to honor these artists, writers and musicians who gave us so much. We are committed to adding to their scholarship and to presenting their works so that the public may appreciate the beauty of their gifts. Furthermore, we are committed to being an educational and cultural resource for all the communities in the surrounding region. Finally we are committed to exhibiting the works of Maxfield Parrish and members of the Cornish Colony, as well historic and contemporary regional artists and craftsmen of the highest quality.
